ANTHONY WILLIAMS, Musical Director

The Fisk Jubilee Singers are vocal artists and students at Fisk University in Nashville, TN who perform and travel worldwide. Founded in 1871, the original Fisk Jubilee Singers introduced the world to the music of what were called "slave songs," now known as African-American spirituals. Preserving this vibrant musical tradition for over 150 years, the 16-member ensemble continues to open minds, uplift hearts, promote education and inspire audiences across the globe. We welcome this GRAMMY-winning ensemble back to the Smith Opera House, where they first performed over 100 years ago on April 2, 1895.
