BURNING RIVER BRASS

Composed of twelve of the country's finest brass and percussion players, Burning River Brass is an ensemble on fire! The expanded instrumentation provides a broad palette of colors for works written for brass as well as fresh arrangements of classic literature. Superb blend, refined sound, sparkling technique, and exceptional musicianship are just a few of the qualities that make listening to Burning River Brass an unmatched experience!

Members of Burning River Brass have appeared with The Cleveland Orchestra, the Boston Symphony Orchestra, the Philadelphia Orchestra, and the Pittsburgh Symphony. They can be heard on movie soundtracks, commercial recordings, television, and radio. Burning River Brass has performed throughout the United States including appearances at the Chautauqua Institute, NY, and Cleveland's Severance Hall. The 2003-04 season will bring Burning River Brass to Florida, West Virginia, Michigan, South Carolina, New York, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Texas.

Burning River Brass' first project for Dorian Recordings, Of Knights and Castles, has met with critical acclaim. The album is a musical celebration of the pageantry and splendor of all things royal—from Arthurian legends to British majesty in our own century. The brass ensemble has also released a CD of Russian spectaculars including the complete Pictures at an Exhibition, March for the Love of Three Oranges, and A Little Russian Circus, a brand new work composed for Burning River Brass by Anthony DiLorenzo. Their newest CD, "Romanza Española, Spanish Masterworks for Brass," released in October 2003, showcases the passion of Spanish music and will feature selections from de Falla's Three-Cornered Hat, Bizet's Carmen, as well as works by Gimenez, Sarasate, and Chapi.
